I promise to abide by all rules and policies of the Peoria Heights Public Library for computer usage.

The Peoria Heights Public Library does not monitor a user's use of the Internet and has no control of the Internet, its resources, and the information accessed through the Internet.

➢ The library assumes no responsibility for the quality, accuracy, timeliness or content of any Internet resource.

➢ The Internet may contain materials of a controversial and/or offensive nature.

➢ Parents or guardians, not the library staff, are expected to monitor and supervise their children's use of the Internet in accordance with library rules and policies.

➢ Two 60 minutes sessions per day.

➢ Staff assistance may not always be available. Staff can provide only limited assistance for basic start-up procedures. Patrons will be expected to have basic computer skills.

➢ Users may not save data on the computer's hard drive or alter the computer's hardware or software in any manner. Patrons may bring in their own flash drives to be used for downloading.

➢ 20¢ a page will be charged for any printing done on the library's printers. All printing is black and white, no color printing is available at this time.

➢ Computers will be turned off one half hour before closing.

➢ Computer resources may only be used for legal purposes. Unacceptable purposes include, but are not limited to,

- destruction of or damage to equipment, software, or data belonging to the library or other users;
- violation of system security;
- commercial transactions;
- intentionally sending, receiving, or displaying text or graphics which may reasonably be construed as obscene, pornographic, harmful, or disruptive. Punitive measures may be taken.

Reviewed and Revised 12/11/12